III. Student Representative Reports

a. Freshman – Lauren Palmer

- Would like extended time in between classes if possible
- It would be good if we had an 8 period bell schedule
- Concerned about selecting sophomore classes for next year

b. Sophomores – Sarah Williams

- Figuring out what classes to take next year
- loved the formal

c. Juniors – Case Wagstaff

- SATs taken and not looking forward to scores
- Looking forward to the dodgeball competition

d. Seniors –Lexxa Kight

- The biggest thing for seniors right now is getting into college
- Stressed about grades
- Formal was a nice way to relax, liked the venue

e. ASB Representative Report – Olivia Stephens

- Large turn out at formal
- Formal- pep rally teachers vs students basketball popular as always
- Info night on Feb 7th displayed clubs and was a nice intro for incoming freshmen
- Mav Voices club reboot in the works, the district is working hard to listen to the voice of the students (Student summit)
- Semester 1 down
- Theater - The Addams Family is the next spring musical
- Athletics - LCC sports teams are doing well

IV. Counselors Report - Melissa Hernandez-Cyr (Randa Fast-Medley for Melissa)

- Cycled through student presentations and continuing tomorrow and Friday
- March 12th we will begin meeting individually with students to review the registration forms and ensure courses are recorded in Aeries correctly.
- Students are given until May 10th for changes. We are making ourselves available at lunch so students don't miss class time if they have questions.
- Thursday the 28th is the last day to make any changes, hopefully students have done this already if needed.
- College acceptance is a big thing, March is when we hear back from the UC's.
- There will be an event in May at break and lunch with ASB, to celebrate what choices students are making for after High School, students pin the map and we post in our college center
- IB is asked about a lot.

V. ELAC Report – Leo Fletes & Melissa Hernandez-Cyr

- Explains ELAC (English Language Advisory Committee)
- Students find the pep rallies exciting
- Students enjoyed Winter Formal
- LCC has a large population of EL students, we want to make sure we are preparing them.
- We had a Department Collaboration meeting on Monday, going over and improving delivery and teaching techniques with these particular students to make it better.
- We have students from all over to include Russia, Brazil, German, Italy
- Most of the students do feel welcomed and supported here, so good job and thank you!

VI. Admin Report – Jeremy Meadows

2017-2018 SPSA (School Plan for Student Achievement)– Dr. Meadows

- Ca. School Dashboard results presented
 - Highlights are 30% EL grad rate improvement and 11% for SPED.
- In May we will meet and approve goals to finalize the SPSA
- Dr. Meadows requests a teacher update

VII. District Report - Shannon Kinney

- Student Summit- Dr. Haley said the student summit was “one of the most powerful days in my professional career”.
- Student Summit will be annualized and themes for the next summit will be discussed at the next Summit on March 20th.
- 5 students per High School and 3 students per Middle School
- Thank you to the students for speaking out and being a part of the Student Summit
- High School selection process, the window closes March 3rd
- Raptor system is being used in all schools, a lot of positive feedback
- Piloted cameras at TP on the perimeter. Experts report that cameras are a proven deterrent and that barriers such as school fences don't necessarily make schools safer.

VIII. Teacher Update

- Silvia Wiedmann- 5 LCC students selected by a jury to enter YAM (Youth Art Month 2019) Exhibition on display at the Rose Gallery, 6501 Linda Vista Rd. San Diego 92111. Public reception will be on Sunday, March 2, 2019 2-4pm. Winners will move to state and to the national level. 1 LCC student (Madeline Kelley) was selected by the San Diego Museum of Art Youth Art '19 Exhibition. Work will be on display March 28 through May 12 at the SDMA in Balboa Park.
- Sarah Steele- 4 sections of seniors this year. We are reading a play, doing Senior projects for English and it involves research and Senior Speech reflection of everything they have been through. They end up taking it seriously. We are dealing with senioritis.
- Katie Stapko- Physics, Rube Goldberg machine, individual portions due tomorrow. I am the Avid coordinator, and some of 11th graders took a field trip to SDSU for a college visit.
- Olivia Stephens motions to add a teacher report to agenda going forward, Shannon Kinney 2nds motion, the motion carried.
